Take ownership in making downtown Middlesboro the best that it can be. Discover how your membership and volunteerism can help keep the revitalization of your town on track. The Middlesboro Main Street Association is a community effort for revitalization in the historic area. We are a nationally accredited Main Street Program, we place our primary efforts in 4 areas: Promotion, economic vitality, design, and organization. As an association we work through public/private partnerships with the City of Middlesboro, area businesses, corporate sponsors, Middlesboro residents, Bell County Tourism, Cumberland Gap Regional Tourism, and a host of volunteers.
